

Mitchells & Butlers plc
Market Disclosure Committee
Terms of Reference

Membership

1. The Market Disclosure Committee shall be appointed by the Board in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association.
2. The Market Disclosure Committee shall have at least two members and shall initially comprise the Chairman of the Board, the CEO, the Finance Director and an independent Non-Executive Director.
3. The board has delegated to the Market Disclosure Committee responsibility for overseeing the disclosure of information by the Company to meet its obligations under the Market Abuse Regulation and the Financial Conduct Authority's Listing Rules and Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules.

The Market Disclosure Committee's duties

The duties of the Market Disclosure Committee include (without limitation):

4. To consider and decide whether information provided to the Market Disclosure Committee is inside information and, if so, the date and time at which that inside information first existed within the Company.
5. To consider and decide whether inside information gives rise to an obligation to make an immediate announcement and, if so, the nature and timing of that announcement or whether it is permissible to delay the announcement.
6. When disclosure of inside information is delayed, to:
 - a. maintain all required Company records;
 - b. monitor the conditions permitting delay;
 - c. prepare any required notification to the Financial Conduct Authority regarding the delay in disclosure; and
 - d. prepare any required explanation to the Financial Conduct Authority of how the conditions for delay were met.
7. To take external advice on the need for an announcement and the form of any announcement where it considers this is appropriate.
8. To consider the requirement for an announcement in the case of rumours about the Company or in the case of a leak of inside information and in particular whether a holding statement should be made.
9. To review any announcement the Company proposes to make, other than an announcement of a routine nature or that has been considered by the board.
10. To review and advise generally on the scope and content of disclosure by the Company.

11. To review the steps taken to ensure that any announcement is not incorrect or incomplete.
12. To alert the Company Secretary to the existence of any inside information that may require an amendment to the Company's insider list.
13. To ensure that effective arrangements are in place to deny access to inside information to persons other than those who require it for the exercise of their functions in the Company or its group.
14. To ensure that procedures are in place for employees with access to inside information to acknowledge the legal and regulatory duties that apply to them and to be aware of the sanctions attaching to the misuse or improper circulation of such information.
15. To approve and keep under review the design, implementation and evaluation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures.
16. To monitor compliance with the Company's disclosure controls and procedures.
17. To review other public disclosures by the Company, including those that are part of the regular reporting cycle.
18. To approve and keep under review the Company's procedures for the issue of announcements.
19. To ensure that procedures are in place for notification of transactions by persons discharging managerial responsibilities and persons closely associated with them.
20. To review the Company's relationship with, and procedures for dealing with, investors and analysts.
21. To approve the Company's policy for communications with the market.
22. To refer to the board, if practicable, any decision to make an unplanned announcement about trading or about an event or development, or, if a meeting of the board cannot be convened sufficiently quickly, to take such a decision.
23. To monitor the markets' views about the Company (including those based on signals set by the Company) and its share price, including rumours.

Composition

24. At least one member must be an executive director. Members of the Market Disclosure Committee are appointed by the board.
25. Only members of the Market Disclosure Committee have the right to attend Market Disclosure Committee meetings, but the Market Disclosure Committee may invite others, including but not limited to any director, officer or employee of the Company or any group Company and or any person whose advice is sought, to attend all or part of any meeting if it thinks it is appropriate or necessary.

26. The board appoints the chairman of the Market Disclosure Committee. In the absence of the Market Disclosure Committee chairman and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present may elect one of their number to chair the meeting.

Quorum

27. The quorum necessary for the transaction of business is two members, including at least one executive director.
28. A duly convened meeting of the Market Disclosure Committee at which a quorum is present is competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Market Disclosure Committee.

Meeting administration

29. The Market Disclosure Committee must meet whenever necessary to fulfil its responsibilities. The Market Disclosure Committee may hold meetings by telephone or using any other method of electronic communication, and may take decisions without a meeting by unanimous written consent, when deemed necessary or desirable by the chairman.
30. Meetings of the Market Disclosure Committee are called by the secretary of the Market Disclosure Committee at the request of any of its members and can be called on short or immediate notice.

Secretary

31. The Company Secretary or such person as the Company Secretary nominates acts as the secretary of the Market Disclosure Committee.
32. The secretary must ensure that the Market Disclosure Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration to be given to the issues.
33. The secretary must minute the proceedings and resolutions of all meetings of the Market Disclosure Committee, including recording the names of those present and in attendance.
34. Draft minutes of Market Disclosure Committee meetings must be sent promptly to all members of the Market Disclosure Committee. Once approved, minutes must be sent to all members of the board, unless the chairman of the Market Disclosure Committee thinks it is inappropriate to do so.

Self-evaluation

35. The Market Disclosure Committee must review its own performance, composition and terms of reference at least once a year and recommend to the board any changes it considers necessary or desirable.

Reporting responsibilities

36. After each Market Disclosure Committee meeting, the chairman must report formally to the board on the Market Disclosure Committee's proceedings and on how it has discharged its duties and responsibilities.
37. The Market Disclosure Committee may make such recommendations to the board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is desirable.

Other matters

38. The Market Disclosure Committee must:
 - a. have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the company secretariat and external broker, legal or other professional advice for assistance as required on all Market Disclosure Committee matters;
 - b. give due consideration to laws and regulations, the provisions of the UK Corporate Governance Code, the requirements of the Financial Conduct Authority's Listing, Prospectus, Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules and any other applicable rules, as appropriate;
 - c. oversee any investigation of activities which are within its terms of reference; and
 - d. work and liaise as necessary with all other board committees.

Authority

39. The board authorises the Market Disclosure Committee to:
 - a. undertake any activity within its terms of reference;
 - b. seek any information from any group employee or contractor that it requires to perform its duties;
 - c. obtain external legal or other professional advice on any matter within its terms of reference at the Company's expense, and to invite persons giving such advice to attend Market Disclosure Committee meetings;
 - d. call any group employee or contractor to be questioned at a Market Disclosure Committee meeting, as and when required; and
 - e. delegate any of its powers to one or more of its members or the secretary.
